The procedures for completing this “overall” portion of the form are as follows: All members of the committee must judge the exam to pass “With distinction” for the exam to be passed as such. If a student fails two of three questions in a major exam, they fail the entire exam and must retake the entire exam. If a student fails one of three questions in a major exam, they will receive a “revise and resubmit” decision on the exam, after which they will have to revise the failed exam question. If the student does not pass the failed question on the second attempt, they will fail the entire exam. If a student fails one of two questions in a minor exam, they will receive a “revise and resubmit” decision on the exam, after which they will have to revise the failed exam question. If the student does not pass the failed question on the second attempt, they will fail the entire exam.
